

Notice of Rights on Not-to-Prosecute Decision

1. You have received a not-to-prosecute decision. The prosecutor decided not to prosecute after conducting the investigations. The accused is not prosecuted.
2. Availability of legal remedies for a reconsideration:
  - The complainant may file a petition for a reconsideration, specifying the reasons, to the case prosecutor for submitting to the chief prosecutor of the supervising prosecutors office within ten days after receiving the not-to-prosecute decision.
  - No petition for reconsideration is permitted in this case.
  - The prosecutor will actively submit the not-to-prosecute decision to the chief prosecutor of the supervising prosecutors office for reconsideration.
3. You may visit the Prosecutors Office's website for more information:
<https://www.ulc.moj.gov.tw/10570/>