Busted a Multinational Prostitution Group to Avoid Epidemic Prevention Flaw

Head prosecutor Wang commanded a joint task force to uncover the private prostitutes in Dongshi Township, Yunlin county, which against Human Trafficking Act and committed obscenity. They investigated and captured 29 prostitutes, including 7 Thailand people and 6 Vietnamese(a juvenile included).

Yunlin county specialized operation corps of Immigration Agency and Yunlin county police bureau found several cases that there were foreign female sex workers in the private prostitutes since 2019, and doubted there are multinational prostitution groups behind the scenes.

Chief prosecutor Hong indicated that this transnational human trafficking case showed we need to fight the pandemic of COVID-19 and control the spread of the disease by stopping the epidemic prevention flaw.
