

Press release

Taiwan Yunlin District Prosecutors Office

Release date: Aug. 26, 2021

Media Contact: Head Prosecutor Wu

Contact Number: (05)6334991

Kouhu township mayor was prosecuted for bribery

Prosecutor Li-fu Huang commanded a mobile team which consists of several survey station of investigation bureau to detect the corruption cases in Kouhu Township, Yunlin county.

Township mayor Ling O Lin took the opportunity that local residents and aquaculture fisher protest against the Green energy industry to take bribes of three million and five hundred thousand to 4 million dollars since Oct. 2019. The township mayor signed two fake engineering consultancy contracts and made false invoices intended to cover the capital flow. His friend Mr. Chen helped him buying stocks and gold. All the money he concealed was 34 million dollars and was suspected of committing Anti-corruption Act and money laundering prevention act. Finally prosecuted by the district prosecutors office today.

Chief prosecutor Jia-yuan Hong reiterated that civil servants must be incorruptible and obey the laws when performing duties. He made a public appeal that green energy dustry should reject the asking from cirminals and the prosecutor office would continually achieve the policy of the government in promoting green energy.